GUIDELINES

- Animals exhibited in the Junior Beef Cattle Show are eligible for competition in the Open Show provided entry fees are paid and they are entered separately under the same exhibitor's name and number as in the junior show.
- An animal shown in the Junior Show shall not be entered in another exhibitor's name in the Open Show.
- Each exhibitor is limited to six entries in the beef shows collectively with no more than one entry per class. No farm or family may occupy more than one row of tie spaces.
- Steers must be weaned, halter-broken, polled or dehorned, castrated, and completely healed. See class listings for other restrictions.
- No animal shall be allowed to compete in group classes unless also registered in an individual class.
- It is the responsibility of the director to ensure any animal waste outside the barn is removed and disposed of in the proper animal waste container prior to leaving the grounds.
- To compete in showmanship, exhibitor must have an entry in a competitive class.

Rules & Regulations

- Registration certificates must be presented at check-in. If certificate papers cannot be provided, cattle will be put in commercial show.
- All animals, regardless of the state of origin, must be accompanied by a valid Certificate of Veterinary Inspection (a valid health certificate/health papers) dated within 60 days of the opening date of the fair. See Livestock and Horse Health Regulations at clevelandcountyfair.com.
- All animals must be in the possession of the exhibitor. The animals must have been under the exhibitor's care for thirty days immediately prior to the opening day of the fair.
- Each individual exhibitor may enter up to six animals with no more than one entry per class.
- To compete, exhibitors must be capable of showing animals without assistance in the show ring. Minimum age is 5 years.
- Exhibitors must maintain control of their animals at all times while in the show ring.
- Exhibitors removing their animals prior to the announced release time shall forfeit all premiums earned.
- Feed and bedding must be furnished by the exhibitor.
- Bedding with straw is NOT permitted. Cleveland County Fair will provide base bedding. Care will be exercised to have all tie spaces clean and bedded with a suitable base material at the time of entry. Exhibitor is expected to keep area clean.
- The exhibitor will be expected to:
  - Provide onsite supervision of their animals.
  - Keep the space they occupy in a clean and sanitary condition.
  - Remove all litter or equipment promptly as the superintendent may direct.

- Other considerations:
  1. The management reserves the right of declining any entry.
  2. Furthermore, the directors reserve the right to bar from the competition:
    - Beef cattle of decided poor conformation.
    - Beef cattle not fitted properly for the show.
    - Beef cattle not possessing sufficient merit to warrant recognition.
  3. Exhibitors are expected to:
    - Display their animals as directed.
    - Accept assigned pen spaces without controversy.
    - Keep their animals and display in attractive appearance.
    - Cooperate with the department in every way such as may serve to increase the educational value of the show.
  4. Exhibitors failing to promptly exhibit their animals in the arena to be rated by the judge as per schedule shall forfeit the privilege of competition. Decorations with ribbons previously won by animals in the show shall be prohibited until after the awards have been made in their respective classes. Current Cleveland County Fair ribbons must be displayed.
  5. An experienced judge shall rule on each class.
  6. The judge shall determine proper placing in the absence of competition in any class. Should unsound, inferior, or distinctly unworthy specimens be presented in competition, the Fair shall be under no obligation to decorate them with ribbons or distribute prizes as scheduled. Merit alone shall justify recognition.
- No cattle are to be tied outside the barn without express permission of management.
- There will be no classes offered or premiums awarded for any breed show with three or less animals entered in that show. These animals will be eligible to show in the All Other Breeds division or Commercial division, whichever is applicable
- All herdsmen, including junior exhibitors, in charge of a herd of four or more animals exhibited in classes will automatically be entered in the Herdsman Contest (See the rules governing livestock.).
- The Cleveland County Fair shall not be responsible for any accident which may occur to, or by reason of, any animals exhibited at the show. Also, the exhibitor shall hold the Cleveland County Fair blameless and indemnify the Cleveland County Fair against any legal proceedings arising from such actions.
