- Early Entry: September 6, 2023 ($15 per entry)
- Late Entry: September 14, 2023 ($20 per entry) and no entries will be accepted after this date.
- Make your entries early. The show is limited to available tie space, which is 125 head. Tie spaces are assigned in the order entries are received.
- There will be no refund for entries scratched.

Check-In:

Thursday, October 5 from 12 N - 5 PM

- No cattle will be allowed to arrive outside of this time frame unless the Livestock Director gives direct permission in advance to do so.
- Do not offload until you have spoken with the NCDA&CS veterinarian regarding health inspections.
- Animals showing signs of disease will be returned promptly to the farm of origin.
- Show officials reserve the right of declining any entry.
- Certificates of Veterinary Inspection are only required for out-of-state animals (see Livestock Health Regulations).
- Vehicles and trailers must be moved to Livestock Parking outside Gate 10 immediately after unloading. See director for parking pass at check-in.
- After your animals are tied, bring your registration paper to the entry table to verify that the information contained in the Show Order is correct.

Show Time:

Friday, October 6 at 12 N

Release Time:

Saturday, October 7 at 8 PM

Exhibitors removing their animals prior to the announced release time shall forfeit all premiums earned.

Guidelines:

- Animals entered in the Junior Beef Show are eligible to compete in the Open Beef Show, provided they are entered separately under the same youth exhibitor's name.
- An animal shown in the Youth Beef Show cannot be entered in the Open Beef Show in another exhibitor's name.
- Juniors may not enter group classes. However, Junior exhibits may be used to complete group classes in the Open Show provided they are owned by the same family or farm.
- No animal is allowed to compete in group classes unless it is also entered in an individual class.

Rules & Regulations:

- Registration certificates for purebred animals must be presented at check-in. If not provided, animals will be moved to the commercial division.
- All animals must be in possession of the owner and have been in the care of the exhibitor for at least 30 days prior to the Fair.
- To compete, exhibitors must be capable of showing their animals without assistance in the show ring. Exhibitors must be at least 5 years old.
- Exhibitors must always maintain control of their animals. Unruly animals will be removed from the premises and forfeit all premiums.
- Feed and bedding must be provided by the exhibitor. Cleveland County Fair will provide a base bedding of sawdust, and exhibitors will supply topdressing. Straw is not permitted.
- No cattle are to be tied outside the barn without the expressed permission of the show director.

- Exhibitors are expected to:
 - Accept assigned tie spaces without controversy.
 - Provide on-site supervision of animals.
 - Keep the space they occupy clean, organized, and attractive.
 - Remove litter or equipment promptly as instructed by the director(s).
 - Keep their animals clean.
 - Display current Cleveland County Fair ribbons.
 - Display their animals as directed. Exhibitors failing to enter the show ring when their class is call forfeit the privilege of competition.
 - Cooperate with directors to increase the educational value of the show.
- An experienced judge will pass on each class and shall determine proper placing in the absence of any competition. The Fair is under no obligation to award ribbons or premiums to unsound, inferior, or distinctly unworthy specimens.
- There will be no classes offered or premiums awarded for any breed show with fewer than three (3) entries. These animals will be eligible to show in the "All Other Breeds" division or the Commercial Division, whichever is applicable.
- Discourteous and unsportsmanlike behavior will by exhibitors or ringside affiliates will not be tolerated. Violation could lead to disqualification and a one-year ban from showing beef cattle at the Cleveland County Fair.
- Cleveland County Fair shall not be responsible for any accident which may occur to or by reason of any exhibit animals. The exhibitor shall hold Cleveland County Fair blameless and indemnify them against any legal proceedings arising from such actions.
